

WARRIOR TRAILS

By Robin Newcomer

Last Friday, during one of my quieter and more liberal moments, I thought how sad it is that for two weeks the rushing, yelling, mobs will have left the halls deserted. School gets to be a part of a person, I thought and I didn't want to leave it all behind—even for two weeks. My sentimentality didn't last long, however, and after stashing my books in the closet and remarking, "See you in two weeks!" I joined the rest of my joyous friends.

But since there is no school, which results in no school activities, I'm going to take advantage of this and bring you odds and ends on news around campus.

One of the people I will be writing about is Judy Harris, who not only maintains a high grade point average but is one of our spirited song queens and was runner-up for grid queen. Because Judy is so well rounded she was chosen by the administration to be a Girl's State representative for a week during the summer.

FOR THOSE of you not acquainted with the Girl's State program, it deals with state government. The active senior stated, "You learn how city, county, and state officials are elected to office and what their duties are."

When the 500 representatives arrived at the University of California at Davis they were given room in the dorms. The girls were also assigned mythical political parties—the Whigs and the Tories. Then followed a week of attending lectures, rallies, political speeches (many girls ran for an office) and recreation consisting of singing in the choir, swimming, and playing tennis.

Commenting on the program Judy remarked, "Through Girl's State you learn how to make friends quickly. It is worthwhile, not only because you learn about government, but because you learn how to get along with girls from different backgrounds and ideas."

DID YOU KNOW that West is the only school in the district with an independent study program and facilities? The independent study program is a special opportunity for students to work on their own (for enrichment or credit) with occasional advice from their sponsor. The upstairs of the library is filled with desks which independent study and CSF members use. Each student has his own personal desk and at times during a class a student may use his merit pass with the teacher's permission and go up to the mezzanine to study on his own.

Ever wonder what teachers do during Christmas vacation? Miss Ardella Tibby, a social studies teacher and the junior class sponsor, said she liked to use the time to read and visit with her family. She also remarked, "Who knows? Maybe I'll go out with Santa Claus!"

I hope everyone has a very merry Christmas! Trail's end!

Airman Appren. James C. Casey, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Casey of 22408 S. Denker, has returned to the U. S. aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation after more than six months with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Dr. Stanley Fitch, also a psychology instructor, was to have appeared at 7 this morning to discuss "Psychology and Elementary Math."

Expert on Exceptional Youths to Speak Here

An internationally renowned expert on exceptional children will conduct an institute for Torrance school personnel Friday, Jan. 20. Meeting with staff members at the Torrance High School main cafeteria at 3:30 p.m. will be Dr. William Cruickshank, director of the Institute for the Study of Mental Retardation at the University of Michigan, director of the Division of Special Education and Rehabilitation at Syracuse University, and professor of education and psychology at Syracuse University for the past 20 years.

A graduate of Eastern Michigan University, Dr. Cruickshank is author of nine books on exceptional children. He received his master's degree from the University of Chicago and his doctorates from Cite Universitaire, Paris, France, in 1944 and the University of Michigan in 1945.

He has served as president of both the International Council for Exceptional Children and the Division of Teacher Education Council for Exceptional Children. He was founder and chairman of the New York State Planning Council for the Exceptional and served as Fulbright lecturer and associate director of the Institute San Gabriel Archangel in Lima, Peru.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and a nursery will be provided.

Christmas Eve Service Scheduled

Two Christmas Eve services have been scheduled at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., according to an announcement issued today by the pastors, Rev. E. F. Christiansen and Rev. J. C. Wilker.

Services will be held at 7 p.m. and again at 11 p.m. "Good Tidings of Great Joy" will be theme of the sermon. The church choir will provide music at the services.

Worship services will be held at 8 and 11:15 a.m. Sunday. Theme for the sermon will be "A Gift to Exchange."

Only one Sunday School session will be held Sunday, the pastors said. It will meet from 9:30 until 10:30 a.m.

Church Will Depict Birth Of Saviour

The story of Jesus Christ's birth will be presented Christmas Day from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Pacific View Baptist Church, located at Sonoma and Acacia.

Reading of the Holy Scripture and congregational singing of carols will be included in the service. Mrs. Harold Lung will present dramatic readings, and Marc Billigmeier will appear as soloist.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and a nursery will be provided.

Harbor Yule Services Set

The Rev. John Leverett will conduct the Harbor Church Choir in singing the "Christmas Story" on Sunday morning at 10:30 at the Harbor Church, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., Harbor City.

Pastor Robert Pruett will deliver the Christmas message and serve Holy Communion.

Services Slated in Walteria

A special Christmas Eve Communion Service will be held at the Walteria Community Methodist Church, 3646 Newton St., at 7 p.m. Saturday.

The entire family is invited to participate in the candlelight Communion service, the Rev. Frank E. Knouse, pastor of the church, said. He will deliver a special message for children at the service.

Highlight of the Christmas Eve service will be a performance by the church choir.

Regular worship services are to be held at 9 and 11 a.m. Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Knouse said.

As part of the special service, a special collection of Christmas art, which includes both originals and reproductions, will be on display. The exhibit, "The Pageant of Christmas," was done by North High students and was loaned by Gary Parton, art instructor at the school.

"The Pageant of Christmas" may be viewed at the church, along with works by other local artists, each evening from 7 until 8:30 this week.

Spartans Speak

This week the Spartans have been freed from the worries and tensions of school. Students are now out of school and enjoying the holiday vacation.

Our basketball team, the jolly green giants, are busy playing in the Hawthorne and Bishop Montgomery tournaments. Come Jan. 11 South plays Redondo at 2 p.m. Paramount visits the Spartans court Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. The Boys' League will be selling green derbies for this game!

Everyone to the Wharves! The U.S.S. Kearsarge is sailing back into the San Pedro harbor Jan. 20. The student council, yell leaders, and pep band will be cheering as it comes into the dock. In case you're wondering why all the excitement, last year South held the junior-senior prom on board the Kearsarge after other reservations were cancelled at the last minute. That was a dance to remember!

BRUCE CAUKINS is the Boys' League Boy of the Month for November. Bruce is treasurer of the senior class and serves on many of the Boys' League committees.

Lodge Planned Groundbreaking ceremonies for a new Elks Lodge in San Pedro will be held Saturday, Dec. 31, at 11 a.m. The new lodge will be built on an 11-acre site at 1748 Cumbre Drive, above Western Avenue near the Morse Drive turn-off.

They will discuss each others activities and traditions. Four representatives from South are leaving for Hollywood, Jan. 8, to match their wits with Savannah High on televisions Scholarquiz. The broadcast will be shown Jan. 21.

THE SOPHOMORE class is having a newspaper drive Jan. 3 through 14. For further information contact Gary Farmer, sophomore president.

But now, to forget about all the school activities and affairs. I really hope you have a fantastic holiday.
